

Graduate Consulting Club Casing Network 2024

6:00 - 7:30 PM every Thursday
from March 28 to August 29

Are you actively preparing for case interviews and looking for like-minded people to practice with?

Please join the Graduate Consulting Club (GCC) Casing Network! Weekly live casing practice Thursday 6-7:30 PM (EST). Our first session starts March 28th!

Who will you meet?

Members of GCCs of schools including Yale, UPenn, Princeton, Columbia, Johns Hopkins, Tri-I, Georgetown, Carnegie Mellon and more.

What will you do?

Before the meeting:

- Prepare a case yourself or choose a case from the suggested list to case your partner.
- Prepare blank papers and a pen.

During the meeting:

- Join the meeting by 6:00 pm. For the convenience of pairing, we will close the entrance after 6:15pm.
- Meet a casing partner assigned on-site by the session moderators.
- Go into a breakout room with your casing partner and take turns to practice one complete case interview. Provide feedback to each other.

After the meeting:

- Join the GCC casing network Slack space (link provided in meeting).
- Stay tuned for more GCC casing network announcements.

Great opportunity to network with your future colleagues!

Prerequisite: Have live casing practice experience (at least one case) before.
*We will dive directly into casing practice without providing any basic tutorial.

Please take some time to go through Resources Folder, which has the Attendee Rule Book for more details, and some resources to make the most out of this experience.

Contact Rong Guo(rong.guo@yale.edu), Lucy Fan (lucy.fan@yale.edu) for more questions and comments.
